

Brad's Drumming Terms & Conditions

TERM OR BLOCK PAYEES

- All payments are per term or 10 week blocks, or a minimum of 5 lessons.
- There are no make up lessons given at any stage unless under extreme circumstances (e.g. death in the family, or car accident causing serious injury). If you or your child are just sick, or don't turn up, or are injured in a sporting event of your own choice, lessons are forfeited and not made up at any stage.
- If you decide to leave and no longer want lessons through a block or term, you do not receive a refund of remaining sessions left.
- If an invoice is sent out for your next block and you no longer want lessons, you must inform Brad 2 weeks prior to set block or term of lessons ending or you must pay for those 2 weeks. You can not just inform Brad 'this will be my last lesson' if an invoice has been sent out.
- If Brad is sick or going to be away he will always make up the lessons he missed out on for you, or credit those lessons into the next term or block.

Thank you for choosing Brads drumming, please sign below your agreement to the above terms and conditions.

Regards, Brad
